

Nicole began her training at Danceworks under Margaret Gatzonis, Fallon White & Joelle Messina when she was 3 years old. She is a proud graduate of LaGuardia High School (2011) & Long Island University (Brooklyn) in 2015 where she received her Bachelors of Fine Arts in Dance (BFA). Nicole was a member, of the charitable company, The All Star Dance Company, under the direction of Lu Cuadra for 2 years. Nicole was a 5 time, Brooklyn Cyclone Beach Bum Dancer and served as their captain and choreographer for 4 of those years. Lastly, she was a member of the Westchester Knicks Dub Squad from 2016-2018!

At Danceworks, Nicole, had been a class assistant, for 10 seasons before she became an instructor, in 2011. She has choreographed for the competitive team, since 2012 and received her first choreography nomination for her jazz production, "Im Every Woman" at Access Broadway's 2019 Grand Nationals!

In addition to teaching, Nicole returned to school in 2016 to earn her degree in Physical Therapy. She now works full time as a licensed Physical Therapist Assistant (PTA) and doesn't hesitate to bring her knowledge of the body, muscles, and healing to each of her students when in need!
