

Fallon White began her journey at Danceworks Dance Center at the age of 10, under the direction of her mentor and founder of Danceworks Margaret Tapogna Gatzonis. A LaGuardia HS graduate, Fallon received training from the industry's leading instructors in ballet and modern dance. Professionally, Fallon traveled as a dance ambassador to Beijing, China in preparation for the 2008 Olympics. She has appeared on MTV and choreographed for WKTU's Summer Beatstock concert, working with recording artist Reina. Fallon has been interviewed and published in "Dance Spirit" magazine, as well as "Interview En l'air." You can read her expose with En l'air here: <http://www.interviewenlair.com/fallon-white/>

Teaching has always been Fallon's passion. In 2008, Fallon, acquired Danceworks Dance Center from her mentor Ms. Gatzonis. Since then she has worked to expand the Danceworks brand, while keeping roots in the true essence of what makes the studio stand apart from others. In a continuous effort to bring quality dance training to children everywhere, Fallon acquired a second space in 2019, Danceworks Howard Beach, in Howard Beach, NY. Fallon is an award winning choreographer and many of Fallon's students have transitioned into the professional field, dancing on stage with the Ailey and Lar Lubovitch Companies. They've also danced & cheered for minor and major league NY sports teams, including the NY JETS.

In addition to running Danceworks Brooklyn & Queens locations, Fallon currently works as an adjudicator for many dance & talent competitions on the east coast.

"I'd like to thank you for giving us the chance to share our love for dance with your children. Your continued support of our team, brand and small business is greatly appreciated and we look forward to providing your children with a quality dance education and tools for so much more!" - Fallon White
