

Leanna, starting as a local dancer from ozone park Queens, Leanna's passion for the arts quickly grew as she continued to pursue her career through professional performances and teaching opportunities all throughout NYC. Leanna is an award winning choreographer but most importantly a patient teacher, which allows her to deeply connect and enhance learning for her students. Leanna's hip hop style fuses an array of different techniques such as street jazz, lite feet, and break dancing. Leanna is dedicated to making her students feel safe and confident in their environment in order to foster creativity and imaginative thinking within the next generation of upcoming dancers.
